The present petition primarily is filed against the maintenance provided in the impugned order which was granted by the trial court as Rs.4,000/- per month whereby the Appellate Court reduced it to Rs.3000/- per month.

It is alleged that the respondent is working in a private company; he is actually present in person and submits that his income is Rs.24,000- per month. He is a young man and can work hard for his child.

In the given circumstances when the livelihood of the minor in question and an able and well performing father is there, the maintenance is set as Rs.6000/- per month.
