From the record it appears that from 11.02.2013 petitioner is not proceeding with the matter and continuously his Counsel is called absent. Today is the same position. The cause list shows that name of applicant's Counsel Mr. Muhammad Idrees Naqshbandi is appearing and again there is no intimation from his side for his absence. Consequently, this Revision Application is dismissed for non-prosecution alongwith listed application.

Arguments heard. All the learned Counsel have concluded their arguments. Reserved for announcement of order. However, it is clarified as it has been not specifically denied during course of arguments that a portion of the agricultural land in question is being utilized for construction of a hospital, without completing requisite formalities under the law and laid down procedure for conversion of use of land from agricultural to any other. In order to avoid further complication in the matter, as admittedly till date official partition has not been done, the applicant is restrained from raising construction of the hospital or undertaking any such measure which can change the complexion and character of the land in question, and which change could pre judge the suit proceedings.

Counsel for the parties are at liberty to file a list of case law in the form of synopsis in support of their arguments.
