This petition has been preferred with the ingredients that the maintenance of Rs.2000/- per months, awarded by the trial Court and maintained at the appellate Forum is not sufficient for the petitioner's livelihood. It is alleged that the learned trial Court did not consider the other sources of income of the petitioner's husband / respondent and merely considered the income arising out of the salary of the said respondent. It is prayed here that this Court could pass order for the enhancement of the maintenance from Rs.2000/- to Rs.5000/- per month.

This being a constitutional petition, the contentions raised pursuant to factual aspect cannot be granted; however, while disposing of this petition a direction is given to the trial / family Court Nawabshah to reconsider the evidence available with the petitioner as to the total sources of income of the petitioner's husband / respondent and to pass a fresh judgment based on the facts present before the Court within a period of three months.

The petition is disposed of in the above terms.
