None present for the petitioner.

On earlier application for hearing of the matter, today's date was affirmed in the presence of learned counsel for the petitioner vide order dated 08.03.2018.

This Constitutional Petition is filed against the concurrent findings of the Courts below.

Respondent No.1 is present, who is landlord, filed the rent case, which was allowed and appeal having been filed by the tenant was dismissed, submits that even the execution proceedings have been culminated and he being landlord is in the peaceful possession of the property in question.

Constitution Petition filed in rent matters has very limited scope as envisaged through the judgment rendered by Honourable Supreme Court of Pakistan in the case of Muhammad Lehrasab Khan Vs. Mst. Aqeel-un-Nisa and others reported as 2001 SCMR 338.

The petitioner's counsel being not present even on the date of his calling and no intimation received, it is 01:30 p.m. as well as his petition having extremely narrow scope, is accordingly dismissed.
