Mr. Abdul Hafeez Jagirani, Advocate for the Petitioner
Mr. Suleman Hudda, Advocate alongwith Muhammad Farhan Akber,
Manager Collection, DIBPL

Mr. Suleman Hudda, Advocate files Vakalatnama on behalf of Dubai Islamic Bank Pakistan Limited, which is taken on record.

1. A statement is filed on behalf of Dubai Islamic Bank with annexures showing that all the payments in respect of the Item No.3 of the Schedule being Car bearing No.ART-059 Suzuki Liana Saloon Model, 2009 were paid by the deceased. Original file of the Car has been produced in the Court.

It is worth mentioning that this file only has been produced in this Court after passing of several orders, such a lax attitude is highly deplorable, least to mention. The concerned officer of the Bank is directed to deposit the original papers with the Nazir of this Court and submit a list of similar cases where despite having paid all the installments, original Books/papers of the vehicles are still lying with the said Bank with the Nazir of this Court within 15 days. Nazir to present that list to this Court immediately thereafter.

2. Becomes infructuous.

3. Complied with by counsel for the Petitioner.

4&5. Nazir reports dated 28.07.2018 and 06.08.2018 are taken on record subject to all just exceptions and objections.

Learned counsel now requests that the Nazir may be directed to call Hascol Petroleum limited where certain employment benefits of the deceased are lying as well as to communicate with Summit Bank, Clifton Branch where, per counsel, sums of the Petitioner (deceased) are lying. Nazir to do the needful at the cost Rs.10,000/- and file his report within fifteen days.

To come up thereafter.
