For further proceedings:

Mr. Moulvi Iqbal Haider, Advocate for the Plaintiff
Mr. Abdul Jalil Zubedi, Assistant Advocate General

19.11.2018.

Learned counsel for the plaintiff reiterated upon instructions that the plaintiff is agreeable to withdraw the subject suit if the Govt. of Sindh consented to undertake a determination of the plaintiff's rights, with respect to the Govt. accommodation under occupation, in terms of paragraph 54 of the judgment of a Division Bench of this Court dated 16.07.2018 in CP D 2110 of 2009 titled Tariq Qasmi vs. Federation of Pakistan & Others ("Tariq Qasmi") and in addition thereto includes the name of the plaintiff in the list under consideration by the Govt. of Sindh for a one time condonation / waiver.

The learned Assistant Advocate General submits that the Province has no cavil to undertaking the determination of the plaintiff's claim in mutatis mutandis application of paragraph 54 of Tariq Qasmi and if the said determination is rendered against the plaintiff then the name of the plaintiff may be included in the list for consideration by the Govt. of Sindh for a one time condonation / waiver.

In reliance upon the statement of the learned Assistant Advocate General, learned counsel for the plaintiff prays for the withdrawal of the subject suit. The present suit is hereby dismissed as withdrawn.
