Mr. Aqeel Hussain Khan, Advocate for the Petitioners.
Ch. Muhammad Farooq, Assistant Director (Legal), NADRA.
Mr. Kafil Ahmed Abbasi, D.A.G.

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: All the petitioners have come up with the allegation that without lawful authority, NADRA has blocked their CNICs. On notice Ch. Muhammad Farooq, A.D (Legal), NADRA appeared and filed statement today in which it is clearly mentioned that as per report of Verification & Revocation Branch, RHO, NADRA, the CNICs of the petitioners are not blocked and in the statement learned counsel for the NADRA has also given their names with the status as “not block”. Reply has been supplied to the petitioners’ counsel who is satisfied. He further submits that as and when these petitioners approached to their respective banks for encashment of their cheques, it was informed by the banker that their CNICs are blocked which confusion has now been cleared after filing reply by NADRA. This petition is disposed of. If the petitioners have any difficulty they may produce the copy of this order in their respective banks for their information.
