This matter was called in the morning when petitioner's counsel was informed that the Goods Declaration has been assessed and the Goods have been released. The petitioner's counsel perhaps is not aware of it, the officer present in court has placed the Assessment Order and the Goods Declaration which are taken on record. In the 2nd round the petitioner's counsel is called absent who was given time to consult his client. Since the assessment has already been made and the Goods have been released, the petitioner may pursue his remedy if aggrieved by it under the Customs hierarchy. The instant petition as being infructuous stands dismissed along with pending applications.
