Learned A.A.G files statements/comments on behalf of respondents No.2, 4, 6 and 7, taken on record, a copy whereof is provided to learned counsel for the petitioner.

In their respective comments, respondents No.2, 4, 6 and 7 have categorically stated that neither they caused any harassment to the petitioner nor they will do so. Respondent No.7 in his comments has further stated that petitioner is criminal type of person and involved in six criminal cases, list of which has been mentioned in the comments. Learned A.A.G also reiterates the same contention.

In view of the statement made by learned A.A.G as well as after going through the said comments, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks disposal of instant petition.

Accordingly, the petition stands disposed of. However, official respondents shall not cause any harassment to the petitioner. As regard the criminal cases pending against the petitioner, official respondents may proceed in accordance with law.
