 C. P. No. D-4413 of 2022

Date	Order with signature of Judge
------	-------------------------------

FRESH CASE

1. For orders on Misc. No.19273/2022.
2. For orders on Office Objection No.18.
3. For orders on Misc. No.18797/2022.
4. For hearing of main case.

02.08.2022.

Mr. G. M. Bhutto, Advocate for the Petitioner.

1. Urgency granted.
2. Deferred.
3. Granted, subject to all just exceptions.
4. The Petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution seeking that directions be issued to the Federal Investigation Agency and National Database and Registration Authority respectively to probe the issuance of CNICs to the private Respondents No.5 to 7, whom the Petitioner alleges are illegal immigrants from Bangladesh. It has also been sought that they be deported to their country of origin.

Having considered the matter, we are of the view that the Petition is not maintainable within the parameters of Article 199, as the same entails a factual controversy and even otherwise does not relate to any violation of the Petitioner's fundamental rights, who thus lacks locus standi. As to the ancillary prayer made by the Petitioner for protection to be provided to her and family members, various alternate and efficacious remedies are available, which may be exercised in accordance with law. Under the circumstances, the Petition stands dismissed in limine.
