26.11.2015.

Mr. G.M. Bhutto, Advocate for the Petitioners.
Mr. Asim Mansoor Khan, DAG.
Mr. Ilyas Ahsan, Appraising Officer (legal), Customs Department.

-----

Pursuant to Order dated 24.11.2015, Mr. Ilyas Ahsan, Appraising Officer (Legal) has placed on record a copy of Letter dated 24.11.2015, issued from the Office of Directorate General of Customs Valuation, Karachi, addressed to the Collector of Customs, Appraisement (West) and submits that insofar as the petitioner in C.P No.D-7218/15 is concerned, directions have already been issued to the Collector for provisional release of the petitioner's consignment U/S 81 of the Customs Act, 1969, hence the instant petition may be disposed of as it has served its purpose.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that despite issuance of said letter, the consignments in question have not been released, whereas, GD numbers mentioned in the said letter do not cover the entire consignments as detailed in Para-1 of the instant petition. He further submits that insofar as petitioners in other petitions are concerned they have also filed review petitions against Valuation Ruling No.770/2015 dated 05.11.2015 and therefore they also may be granted same treatment.

In the circumstances, insofar as petitioners' consignments covered by C.P No.D-7218/2015 as detailed in para-1 of the petition are concerned, the respondent No.3 shall grant the concession of provisional release U/S 81 of the Customs Act, 1969 as directed by us in C.P No.D-6918/2015 as it appears that the petitioner in this petition has filed a Review Application U/S 25-D and the Directorate General of Customs Valuation has already recommended such release U/S 81 of the Customs Act, 1969. Insofar as petitioners in C.P Nos.D-7219, D-7220 & D-7221 of 2015 are concerned, they may also be granted same treatment for provisional release of their consignments covered by these petitions, if they have already filed a review application U/S 25-D of the Customs Act, 1969.

All aforesaid petitions are disposed of in the above terms along with the listed applications.
