Petitioner Muhammad Ghulam Qasim is present in person.
None present in connected C.P. No.D-927/2020.
Mr. Abdul Jaleel Zubedi, Assistant Advocate General, Sindh.

1. Urgency granted.

Apparently this is a dispute between the private parties i.e. petitioner and respondents No.7 and 8 against whom, the allegations have been raised. Under Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, writ can hardly be issued against the private respondents, however, petitioner may pursue his remedy in the Court of law having jurisdiction in this regard. Same is the position in the connected petition, where against the private respondents, relief has been sought that they should not demolish her house. The petitioner in the connected petition has not filed any title to support her contentions. The petitions being misconceived are hereby dismissed along with listed applications. However, petitioners may avail their remedies before the Civil Courts or any other remedy as deem fit under the law.

The petitions stands dismissed in above terms along with listed applications. Office is directed to place copy of this order in connected petition.
