Mr. Raj Ali Wahid Kunwar, advocate for the petitioner along with Mr. Abdul Qadir Soomro, advocate
Mr. Saifullah, Assistant AG
Mr. Shamshad Ahmed, advocate for SRB

The issues involved in this petition are somehow identical to those which were earlier heard and decided in a reported judgment as SBLR 2021 Sindh 1212, which was followed in relation to provision 42(D) being pari materia, in C.P. No.D-8014/2018. We have inquired learned counsel appearing for Sindh Revenue Board that similar and identical issues were taken up earlier and were accordingly concluded in terms of the reported judgment, to which he agreed. However, he submits that they have already approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court, although no interim order was granted. In view of above, we are of the view that since this petition is covered by the aforesaid judgment, accordingly, by applying the same reasoning, rationale and the conclusion drawn, this petition is also disposed of mutatis mutandis along with listed applications leaving the aggrieved party at liberty to approach the appropriate forum as they deem fit and proper.
