In a generalized form, the petitioner seeks declaration that respondent No.2 had no jurisdiction in respect of order passed under Section 259 of the Cantonments Act, 1924. The Civil Aviation Authority being aggrieved of such order filed a criminal appeal before the Additional District Judge. Learned counsel for the petitioner claimed that the order was without jurisdiction and hence they invoke jurisdiction of this court.

We have perused the prayer clauses. It appears that nowhere independently the order of the appellate authority in the aforesaid criminal appeal has been challenged. These petitions are pending since long without such amendment, hence, we are not inclined for considering an oral request for appropriate amendment as it is a belated attempt. However, we dismiss these petitions leaving the petitioner at liberty in case they intend to initiate lawful proceedings in respect of order of the appellate authority, referred above.

The instant petitions being mis-conceived are dismissed alongwith pending applications, if any.
