08.12.2021

Mr. Danish Raza, Advocate for the petitioner.

1. Urgency granted.

2-5. This petition has been filed on the basis of some news flashed on certain channels. The counsel for the petitioner states that a number of persons were appointed in the respondent No.1 without fulfilling the legal and codal formalities. At the very outset, he was directed to submit the name of the persons who were appointed and was also directed to show us some material to establish their illegal appointments, as on the basis of some news flashing on channels, without there being any material in possession of the petitioner, this petition cannot be said to be maintainable. No plausible explanation is available with the counsel with regard to either such details, name of the persons appointed or other material to substantiate his claim. The petition, therefore, on the face of it, is found to be wholly misconceived and not maintainable and is dismissed in limine alongwith listed applications.
