Mr. Muhammad Nishat Warsi, Advocates for Petitioner(s) in C.P Nos. D-6458 to 6460 of 2022.

Mr. Asad Manzoor Halepota, Advocate for Petitioners in C.P No. D-6683/2022.

Mr. Shujauddin, Advocate for Petitioner in C.P No. D- 6430 of 2022.

Mr. S. Yasir Ahmed Shah, Assistant Attorney General.

Learned Counsel for the Petitioners submits that through these Petitions, the Petitioners have impugned orders passed by a Single Bench of NIRC. They submit that the said orders have been challenged in Appeal(s); however, the Full Bench of NIRC, which has to hear the Appeals, is non-functional; hence these Petitions.

It appears that the controversy involved in these Petitions has already been decided by this Bench in C.P No.D-5128 of

2022 and other connected matters vide Order dated 03.10.2022, whereby, we had allowed / disposed of those Petitions as under:-

“In view of hereinabove facts and circumstances, all these petitions are allowed / disposed of with directions to the Full Bench of NIRC, at Karachi, (as and when it becomes functional), to decide the pending Appeals or stay applications filed by the petitioners, as the case may be, within a period of sixty (60) days from the date of constitution of such full Bench. Till such time this exercise is carried out by the full Bench at Karachi, no coercive measures shall be adopted against the petitioners for implementation of order(s) passed by the Single Bench, NIRC.

Let copy of this order be issued to the Registrar, NIRC, Karachi, for information, compliance and circulation amongst all members of NIRC.”

Accordingly, these Petitions are also disposed of in the same terms, as above along with pending applications. Office to place copy of this order in the connected petitions, as above.
