14.12.2022

Mr. Waqar Memon, Advocate for the Petitioner.

YOUSUF ALI SAYEED, J-      The Petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution, impugning the order dated 05.08.2022 made by the District Judge (MCAC) Malir, Karachi, dismissing Civil Revision Application No.22 of 2022 filed by him against the order dated 28.02.2022, made by the Senior Civil Judge-IV Malir, Karachi in Civil Suit No.189 of 2020, allowing the Respondent No.1's application for verification / comparison of his signature by a hand writing expert.

Proceeding with his submissions learned counsel for the Petitioner argued that the underlying Application had been allowed without affording proper opportunity to the Petitioner to advance his objections. However, the Order dated 28.02.2022 itself reflects that despite notice of the Application, the Petitioner had failed to file a counter-affidavit. Confronted with this aspect, learned counsel sought to contend that counsel who had been appearing on behalf of the Petitioner in the Suit had suffered an accident at the time, hence the counter-affidavit had not been filed in a timely manner. Furthermore, on query posed as to what perversity or illegality, afflicted the orders of fora below or how the Petitioner had been prejudiced, no cogent argument was forthcoming.

Under the given circumstances, we see no force in the Petition, and while granting the application for urgency we hereby dismiss the same in limine along with the other miscellaneous applications.
