2. For order on Misc. Application No. 30151/2022 (Exemption Application).
3. For order on Misc. Application No. 30152/2022 (Stay Application).
4. For hearing of main case.

18.11.2022

Mr. Rana Sakhawat Ali, Advocate for petitioner.

1. Urgency application is granted.

2-4. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner has imported consignments of goods whereupon, as per department, some duties and taxes were imposed upon the petitioner, who has filed appeal and has also preferred this petition. He further states that the petitioner is ready to pay the undisputed amount of duties/taxes within seven days' time and with regard to disputed amount/taxes and other levies, the petitioner is ready to furnish Pay Order(s) within seven days' time.

Mr. G. M. Bhutto, Assistant Attorney General, who is present in Court, has waived notice on behalf of respondents and states that if the petitioner deposits undisputed amount without any delay and furnishes Pay Order(s) the department would have no objection in releasing the goods of the petitioner in accordance with law.

In view of the above facts and circumstances of the case, we direct the Customs Authorities to release the goods imported by the petitioner subject to the condition that the petitioner will deposit undisputed amount of duties/taxes within seven days and with regard to disputed amount the petitioner will furnish Pay Order(s) with the Nazir of this Court within seven days' time. After fulfillment of these requirements needful may be done by the Customs Authorities in accordance with law. It is clarified that the above amount is without prejudice to the matter of any of the parties pending before the concerned appellate authority, which however would be decided on its own merits in accordance with law.

With these directions this petition is disposed of along with the listed application.
