Through this petition an administrative order of the Hon'ble Chief Justice dated 20.9.2022 has been impugned and while confronted as to any illegality in it, learned Counsel has placed reliance upon the case of Sheikh Abdul Aziz Hamad Al-Gosaibi v PIA (PLD 1995 Karachi 566) and order dated 18.4.2008 passed in High Court Appeal No.94 of 2008, and according to him, such orders cannot be passed by the Hon'ble Chief Justice, whereby, the matter has been directed to be fixed according to roster, as against the same judge who had earlier heard the matter and had also passed Orders.

However, in our view, after Hon'ble Supreme Court's judgment in the case of Gul Taiz Khan<sup>1</sup>, no administrative order of the Hon'ble Chief Justice can be challenged in a Constitutional petition under Article 199 of the Constitution. Therefore, instant petition being not maintainable is hereby dismissed in limine with pending applications.
