Mr. Ali Almani, advocate for the applicant(s) in all Special FERAs.
None for the respondent(s).

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that during pendency of instant Special Federal Excise Reference Applications, three rectification were filed before the Appellate Tribunal Inland Revenue in M.A. (Rect) Nos.71/KB/2013 [in FEA No.10/KB/2012]; 72/KB/2013 [in FEA No.12/KB/2012]; & 73/KB/2013 [in FEA No.13/KB/2012], whereas, the Appellant Tribunal Inland vide order dated 18.03.2014 has been pleased to rectify the impugned orders and remanded the matters to the Authority for de-novo proceedings, therefore, the purpose of filing instant F.E.R.As. has been served, hence requests that instant matters may be disposed for having become infructuous. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the applicant(s) has placed on record copy of the order as referred to hereinabove.

Accordingly, instant Special Federal Excise Reference Applications stand dismissed for having become infructuous alongwith all listed applications.
