

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH,
CIRCUIT COURT, HYDERABAD

CP No. S- 636 of 2021
Muhammad Younis v. Province of Sindh and others

CP No. S- 305 of 2022
Maqbool Ahmed and others v. Province of Sindh and others

CP No. S- 458 of 2022
Santosh and another v. Province of Sindh and others

CP No. S- 490 of 2022
Sultan Joyo v. Province of Sindh and others

CP No. S- 516 of 2022
Shr. Bhorl and another v. Province of Sindh and others

CP No. S- 700 of 2022
Abdul Ghani Kaloi v. Province of Sindh and others

Mr. Mumtaz Alam Leghari, Advocate for petitioners
Mr. Muhammad Ismail Bhutto, Addl. A.G.

Date of hearing and decision: 23.09.2022

ORDER

ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON, J. In the aforesaid cases, a common question of law is involved; therefore, the same is being taken up together and disposed of accordingly.

2. Through the listed bunch of petitions, the petitioners have raised several personal disputes including police for misusing their powers, interference in private affairs, and other ancillary matters; therefore, they prayed for directions like mandamus directing the official as well as private respondents not to interfere in their peaceful life and further they claim that they are being threatened and harassed by the police officials, in some of the cases at the behest of private respondents on account of various reasons as disclosed in the memo of their respective petitions.

3. Primarily, the dispute has been alleged between private parties including harassment at the hands of officials as discussed in the preceding paragraph; and in this background, it has been alleged that the private parties are at fault and harassing the petitioners either themselves and/or with the help of police; and instead of taking action against the wrongdoers, the police is supporting them.

4. I have noticed that the petitioners are not in attendance; and, as per learned counsel present in court; due to alleged harassment caused by the respondents/ police officials who in connivance with the private respondents are causing harassment to them. Be that as it may, since they simply seek protection against the police officials, who are allegedly extending serious threats of life to the petitioners in some of the cases, at the behest of private respondents; in this regard, learned AAG present in court in some other matters has candidly agreed that no harassment shall be caused to the petitioners; because of such statement, the petitioners are being treated as aggrieved persons within the ambit of Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan. However, the other grievances of the petitioners as disclosed in the memo of petitions could be taken care of in terms of the ratio of the judgment dated 30.05.2018 passed by the learned Division Bench of Sukkur Bench, Sukkur, in CP No.D-2149/2018 and subsequent order dated 12.12.2019 passed in CP No.D-259/2011 at Circuit Court, Hyderabad, as the same remedy is also available before the competent forum, which remedy needs to be not only availed but also exhausted.

5. Before parting with this order, so far as police action is concerned, in principle the Police are under legal duty and have a legitimate right to lodge a case if a cognizable offense is committed within their jurisdiction; however, the arrest could only be made, if there is concrete evidence against the accused in terms of the recent amendment brought in the Police Act by the Provincial Sindh Assembly.

6. Since, learned Additional. A.G. has categorically stated that no harassment shall be caused to the petitioners in each case; and, the police officials shall act strictly under law, learned counsel present in the Court, submit that these matters need to be disposed of in terms of the statement of learned AAG, however with due protection to the parties under the law.

7. Prima facie, the statement of learned Addl. A.G is tenable and these petitions are liable to be disposed of in terms of the statement of learned AAG; however, it is made clear that if there is any private dispute between the parties, the same shall be dealt with by the competent court of law/forum and this Court will not travel into that dispute and leave it for the competent forum to redress the same if approached by the aggrieved party under the law within a reasonable time. As far as other police harassment issues are concerned, the SSP concerned has to see the matter and take prompt action under the law, if an aggrieved party approaches them.

8. In view of the above, these petitions are disposed of with the direction that the police officials shall be neutral if there arises any dispute between the private parties and shall act under the law and no harassment shall be caused to either party in the matters. However, it is made clear that if the law permits, due protection needs to be provided to the genuinely aggrieved person.

JUDGE