Mr. Abdul Ghaffar for petitioner.

This seems to be a petition for recovery of salary, which is claimed to have not been paid by respondent No.2 while the petitioner was on deputation. He was sent back to his parents department by virtue of judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court. It is simply a recovery proceeding, which is being initiated through this petition under article 199 of the Constitution. When confronted with this position, learned counsel submits that he would avail the remedy before the Civil Court having jurisdiction in this regard. In the circumstances, petition being misconceived is dismissed along with listed applications.
