Date of decision : 11.12.2023

Mr. Illahi Bux Jamali, Advocate for applicant.

ORDER

Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J.- Complainant filed a direct complaint against respondents for offences U/S 147, 148, 149, 452, 395, 398 PPC alleging that respondents, who are police officials, entered her house, maltreated her and snatched / took away from her one buffalo, three mobile phones and cash of Rs.30,000/-. This direct complaint, registered as DC No.02 of 2022 was dismissed at the stage of preliminary enquiry vide order dated 13.10.2022 by the Additional Sessions Judge-V, Sukkur, against which this revision application has been filed.

2. I have heard learned Counsel for the applicant as well as respondents / police officials and learned Additional Prosecutor General. Police officials, the respondents, submit that entire family of the applicant is criminal type and against whom at least 150 criminal cases are registered, a list of which has been filed already. They further submit that they had conducted a raid at the house of applicant and arrested absconder accused; hence, this direct complainant was filed. Learned Additional Prosecutor General has supported the impugned order.

3. I have read the impugned order, which is based on proper reasoning in support of findings recorded therein. Further, the applicant has failed prima facie to produce any proof of snatching / taking away of one buffalo, three mobile phones and cash of Rs.30,000/-, and of maltreating her. The list filed by the respondents indicates that there are hundreds of criminal cases registered against applicant and her family members. No case for indulgence has been made out in the facts and circumstances. Accordingly, this criminal revision application is dismissed.
