For hearing of MA No.6182/2022

20.07.2023

Mr. Farhan Zia, Advocate for the applicant.
Mr. Faheem Panhwar, DPG.

Through this application, learned counsel for the applicant sought indulgence of this court to return the surety deposited in the shape of defence saving certificate in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- each as surety. He further contends that the surety is no more required in this matter.

Learned APG waives notice of this application and has no objection for return of surety.

Nazir's endorsement is available on the record, which reflects that in compliance of Court's order dated 02.08.2021, one Muhammad Ashar Sarwar son of Mohammad Sarwar stood surety for applicant in the sum of Rs.100,000/- [Rupees one hundred thousand] by depositing defence saving certificates in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- each, which is lying in safe custody.

In view of above circumstances, instant application is allowed. Office is directed to return the surety amount to the applicant/surety along with profit if any on proper verification, identification and as per rules.

The application in hand stands disposed of.
