Mr. Shahid Akhtar, advocate for the appellant.
Mr. Talib Ali Memon, APG.

During pendency of this appeal compromise application preferred by the parties. Inquiry was conducted and statements were also recorded whereby mother of deceased being guardian ad-litim also waived right of Qisas on behalf of minors, however, claimed Diyyat amount. Needless to mention that even grandmother was not competent to waive Diyyat amount though she was competent to enter into compromise on minors' behalf. Learned APG contends that compromise is genuine and reports is on record; legal heirs' advocates were called by learned District & Sessions Judge from concerned quarters.
