Applicant present in person, submits that detenue Mst. Gulzar has been returned and is with them at their house; however, she prays for registration of FIR against the culprits as mentioned under the impugned order.

Since, Habeas Corpus Petition No.499 of 2021 filed by her before the Court of learned Sessions Judge, Karachi (East) was declined, against which order, this application has been maintained, and in view of above, instant application has become infructuous. Consequently, same is hereby dismissed. As far as, registration of FIR against the persons who illegally taken away her mother and confined her at a particular place, is concerned, applicant is at liberty to file a proper application before the Court of learned Sessions Judge, Karachi (East) in terms of Section 22-A(6) Cr.P.C, if she desires, which shall be decided in accordance with law without causing any delay or loss of time.
