Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J. – Complainant is in charge Forester, Belo Panhwari Beat. On the day of incident (05.10.2022), when he was on patrolling, he spotted applicant and co-accused Muhammad Sharif cutting trees on forest land. He prevented them, but applicant shoved and pushed him, hence FIR.

Learned Counsel for applicant submits that some of the offences are non-bailable, but do not fall within prohibitory clause under Section 497(i) CrPC, and that applicant himself has planted so many trees on the forest land and has further undertaken through a statement that he would continue to plant trees on the forest land and never indulge in felling the trees.
