Mr. Khalid Mehmood Siddiqui, advocate for the petitioner.

1-4. After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner at some length and while confronted as to maintainability of instant petition as prima facie, it appears that the cognize has been taken by the Labour Court pursuant to a complaint by the Labour Department, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though entire proceedings initiated against the petitioner by the respondents and the cognize taken by the Labour Court is erroneous in law and facts, whereas, the Labour Court has not adopted the legal course available to proceed on a direct complaint in terms of Sections 200 to 204 Cr.P.C. provides for conducting any inquiry to a private person, however, further submits that petitioner will approach the Labour Court by filing appropriate application to this effect and requests that Labour Court may be directed to decide this aspect of the matter first in accordance with law before issuing any warrant(s) against the petitioner's officials.

In view of the above facts, the request of the learned counsel for the petitioner appears to be reasonable, accordingly, instant petition stands disposed of in the above terms alongwith all listed applications.
