3. For hearing of main case.

Dated: 06.06.2024

Mr. Zamir Hussain Ghumro along with Mr. Faizan H. Memon for petitioner.

-.-.-

Learned counsel for the petitioner has taken us to an extended history of the matter when the alleged contractual employees, including petitioner herein, exhausted the jurisdiction of this Court by filing C.P. No.D-128 of 2020 and the matter was seemingly, in terms of paragraphs 16 and 17 of the order passed therein, was referred to the Sindh Public Service Commission for appropriate orders. It seems that the regularization was declined hence petitioner has filed appeal before the Chairman Sindh Public Service Commissioner in October 2023 and awaiting a decision thereon.

At the very outset we have inquired as to how this petition is maintainable to which learned counsel submitted that petitioner has approached this Court only to the extent that his appeal be decided at the earliest. Although there is no such room as to maintain this petition on this count however taking a lenient view we expect that the appeals of the petitioners if pending before the concerned authority be taken to its logical end, strictly in terms of law applicable thereto.

Petition stands disposed of in the above terms along with listed applications.
