Statement has been filed by learned counsel for respondents No.3 to 7, which is taken on record. Such objections have been raised on transferring the pensionary benefits of late Manohar and Indra, whose pensions were already paid to unmarried daughter Rama bearing CNIC No.455504-1010676-4. Per learned counsel for the petitioner after her marriage such pensionary benefits now accrued in favour of the unmarried daughter namely Rati bearing CNIC No.45504-0686779-2. However, after marriage of Rama, such objections have been raised by learned counsel for respondents No.3 to 7. However, the matter is hyper technical. We do not see any cavil in said respondents transferring the pensionary benefits to the petitioner, as admittedly in the same FRC such pensionary benefits were handed-out to Rama. This petition is accordingly disposed of with directions to respondents to forthwith pay all the accrued pensionary benefits / arrears as well as ensure that in future the pensionary benefits are paid to the petitioner in accordance with the rules.
