Learned counsel for applicant at the very outset does not press this application challenging the order passed by Magistrate against the opinion of the I.O disposing of the case under C-class and taking cognizance of offences against the applicants, on the ground that since Challan has been submitted, he may file an application under section 265-K CrPC before the trial Court, which may be directed to decide the same in accordance with law.

Learned DPG has recorded no objection.

Accordingly, this application is dismissed as not pressed. However, if the application under section 265-K CrPC is filed ever by the applicant, the trial Court shall decide the same on merits in accordance with law.
