1. Granted.
2. Granted subject to all just legal exceptions.
3. The applicant by way of instant Crl. Misc. Application u/s 497 (5) Cr.P.C has sought for cancellation of pre-arrest bail granted to the private respondents by learned Additional Sessions Judge Mirwah vide order dated 07-10-2023.

It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that the private respondents are misusing the concession of pre-arrest bail; therefore; it is liable to be cancelled.

Heard arguments perused the record.

The FIR of the incident has lodged with delay of about one day; such delay having not been explained plausibly could not be over looked. The offence alleged against the private respondents is not falling within prohibitory clause. The case has finally been challaned. The private respondents have joined the trial. No particular incident of misusing the concession of pre-arrest bail on the part of the private respondents is noticed; therefore, no case for cancellation of pre-arrest bail to them is made out; consequently, instant Crl. Misc. Application is dismissed in limine, which too has been belated delay of about six months.
