After hearing the parties, this petition is dismissed along with listed application. Nevertheless, the petitioners are at liberty to file a Civil Suit against the impugned entry in terms of section 53 of the Sindh Land Revenue Act, 1967, which if filed shall be decided on its own merits. Meanwhile, status-quo shall be operated between both the parties. However, the petitioners shall file such Civil Suit etc. within a period of two months. If the Suit etc. is not filed in two months or if it is filed earlier than two months, whichever is earlier, facility or concession provided by this order in the shape of maintenance of status-quo between the parties would automatically expire.

The petition along with listed application is disposed of accordingly in the above manner.
