Zulfiqar Ahmad Khan, J:- None has effected appearance on behalf of Respondent No.1. Learned counsel for the petitioners states that the trial Court without considering the affidavit-in-evidence submitted by the petitioner not only decreased the value of the dowry articles also assumed that the jewelry was with the petitioner, which was not the case. Counsel contends that gross illegality has been committed by the courts below and requests that both the judgments be set aside and the matter be heard de novo.

In the circumstances, when there are no contrary stance both the judgments are set aside and the matter be decided by the trial Court de novo.
