Learned AAG files comments on behalf of respondent No.2, taken on record. Per prayer clause, the petitioners seek directions regarding pendency of an application before respondent No.4.

After having heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well learned Assistant AG and gone through the file, we found that though the respondent No.4 is the office bear of Sindh Primary School Teachers Association; however is not a government entity or holding any office, which may be termed to be a person in terms of Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973. Even, the application available at page-19 reveals it was addressed to respondent No.4 and not to respondents No.2 and 3, therefore, the petition in view of the averments as well prayer clause seemingly is misconceived, consequently is hereby dismissed with no order as to costs. However, the petitioners are at liberty to move an application before respondents No.2 and 3, if so advised.
