4. For hearing of main case

21.01.2025

Mr. Tajjamul Hussain Lodhi, advocate for the petitioner

1. Granted.

2-4. The petitioner seeks appointment as Police Constable through orders of this Court. It is his contention that he participated in some process in the year 2022, however, has been found ineligible on account of being deficient in height. There is no cavil to height being a prerequisite for the relevant recruitment. The height of the petitioner and other such qualifying physical attributes are a matter of factual enquiry, notwithstanding the deficiency having been highlighted by the petitioner's counsel himself. It is apparent that no vested right has been demonstrated before us to merit invocation of the discretionary¹ writ jurisdiction of this Court and even otherwise this matter is fraught with factual controversy, not amenable for adjudication in writ jurisdiction². In view hereof, this petition is found to be misconceived, hence, hereby dismissed in limine.
