ORDER

Naimatullah Phulpoto, J.- We proposed to dispose of all these petitions through this common order, as the same question of law and facts is involved in the petitions.

2. Learned counsel for petitioners submitted that, the petitions in the identical matters have already been disposed by this Court in the case of Shabir Hussain v. E.D.O (Education), Larkana and 5 others, reported in 2012 C.L.C-16 Sindh; these petitions may be disposed in terms of the above referred judgment of this Court.

3. Mr. Muhammad Bachal Tonyo, Addl. A.G., has agreed to the disposal of these petitions in the light of the above referred judgment of this Court.

4. In these circumstances, by consent abovementioned petitions are disposed in terms of the directions contained in the above referred judgment of this Court, passed in case of Shabir Hussain v. EDO (Education), Larkana (supra), in which it is observed as under:

"We are therefore of the considered view that the criterion for selection and appointment, provided under Recruitment Policy dated 10.7.2008, is fair, just and reasonable. Any selection or appointment made in violation of the criteria, laid down in the said policy or the findings given in this decision are hereby declared to be unlawful and of no legal effect. The concerned District Recruitment Committees shall strictly follow the procedure, laid down in the Recruitment Policy dated 10.7.2008 as interpreted in this judgment and shall also apply other findings given in this judgment and prepare revised merit-lists within 60 days from the date of this order. Thereafter, any candidate who has become eligible for appointment shall be appropriately listed therein and all appointments made contrary thereto have to be nullified. While preparing merit lists, the person who is likely to be affected shall be afforded the right of hearing. In case upon due notice he does not come forward to defend his position, then the committee shall proceed ex parte and decide objection of any of the petitioners expeditiously within prescribed period of sixty days. All these petitions are disposed of in terms of the directions contained hereinabove. Order accordingly."

5. By consent, the petitions are disposed of in terms of directions referred hereinabove. A copy of this order be sent to the Secretary Education & Literacy Department, Government of Sindh Karachi, for compliance within sixty days.
