Mr. Javaid Haleem for petitioner
Mr. Nishat Warsi DAG
.X.X.X.X.

In pursuance of order dated 16.7.2019 this petition was disposed of whereby Muhammad Azam Farooqui was suggested as an Investigation Officer in place of Shahzad Safdar Khan. Petitioner's Counsel agreed and three months time was suggested to conclude and complete the enquiry. A statement has been filed by the petitioner's Counsel along with two letters. The first letter dated 15.10.2019 issued by Muhammad Azam Farooqui to the petitioner for his appearance for enquiry proceedings which request was out rightly denied by the petitioner through the second letter dated 22.10.2019. Thus, apparently not only the order dated 16.7.2019 was denied by the petitioner but also the enquiry proceedings were derailed as an attempt was made not to respond to the notice of Enquiry Officer. All reasons and questions were dealt with while disposing of petition by consent and Shahzad Safdar was replaced by Muhammad Azam Farooqui as Enquiry Officer hence the petition served its purpose and was disposed of accordingly.

Today the petitioner Counsel brought further issues out of the petition which could not be entertained in these disposed of proceedings. Consequently the contempt application filed by the petitioner is dismissed. The petitioner, is however at liberty, to avail his remedy according to law.
