1. For orders on office objection 'A'
2. For Katcha Peshi.
3. For orders on CMA No.58/14

05.12.2016.

Mr. Gul Muhammad Unar, Advocate for the applicants.

From the perusal of case dairy it appears that on 10.3.2014 this Court observed that on first date of hearing time was sought by the learned counsel for the applicants to prepare the brief then on the next date of hearing he was called absent. Then on 27.4.2015 he once again requested for further time to prepare the brief as well as to file certain additional documents. Since mandatory requirement of Section 115, CPC was not complied with by filing copies of the pleadings and relevant documents the learned counsel was directed to do the needful without fail before next date with caution that no further indulgence shall be shown. Thereafter on 23.11.2015 this Court observed that the civil revision was presented on 04.3.2014 and the office raised certain objections including requisite Court fee, for that the counsel for the applicant was given one week's time for compliance; the objections were noted by the counsel on the same day i.e. 04.3.2014 but compliance was not made within specified period; hence, on 23.11.2015 the counsel was therefore directed to argue the civil revision on the point of maintainability. Thereafter the matter came up for hearing on 19.01.2016 but counsel failed to appear before this Court, however, one of the applicants^m, namely, Muhammad Aslam was present and sought time on the ground that his counsel was unwell. Then on 15.4.2016 and 03.10.2016 the counsel again requested for time. Today the compliance of office objection as noted on the day of presentation of civil revision so also directed by this Court vide order dated 27.4.2015 and 23.11.2015, has not been made therefore, this Civil Revision Application in non-compliance as well as being not maintainable in law is dismissed.
