Mr. Muhammad Qayyum Arain, Advocate for petitioner.
Mr. Muhamad Aslam Jatoy, Assistant Attorney General along with SP Abdul Razzaq, IP Zulfiqar Ali Chandio, IP Akmal Hussain and SIP Adresh of Motorway Police.

.....

SP Motorway Police, present in Court, submits that budget of 2021-22 was lapsed, and in the budgets of 2022-23 and 2023-24 as well as current budget of 2024-25, no tender for the subject project has been issued. A report has been furnished on behalf of AIG (Legal), National Highways and Motorway Police, which admits that as per paragraph No.2, certain items, including Galaxy Tab A7 Lite, Portable Receipt Printer, Power Bank (20000 mAh), Portable Car Charger and 02 Book Covers as well as security of Rs.2,07,570/- is also available with them. Court has been informed that the gadgets are lying in Karachi. Let these gadgets be transmitted in a box to the Additional Registrar of this Court, who to hand out the same to petitioner Sibghatullah along with the security amount cheque / pay order. Counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner should be given priority in future assignments / such projects, whenever these projects are instituted. Court has been informed that now this project has been centralized, for which bidding will take place on national level, and the petitioner would be at liberty to participate in those bids in accordance with law, and if found competent, he would be given the project. With these directions, petition stands disposed of.
