Mr. Muhammad Ismail Bhutto Additional A.G Sindh a/w
Inspector Manzoor Ali

The case of the petitioner is that he was part of a batch of 213 Police Constables who were discharged from service vide Order dated 21.02.2013. He invited attention to that Order, which is available at page-27 of the Court file, wherein the petitioner's name appears at Sr. No.141. He submits that the case of another Police Constable, namely Kashif whose name appears at Sr. No.110, went up to the Supreme Court through Civil Petition No.693-K of 2017, with it being observed in the Order dated 04.09.2019 made in that matter that the aforementioned constable was entitled in all fairness to the emoluments/benefits for the period he remained in service. Learned counsel submits that the petitioner is also similarly entitled and has made certain representations before the Inspector General in that regard, which remain unattended. The learned Additional A.G undertakes that those pending representations/applications would be decided through a speaking order after providing an opportunity of hearing within a period of thirty (30) days. Let the needful be done accordingly.

The petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
