None present for the appellant. Since this Cr. Acquittal Appeal against the order dated 04.11.2019 whereby respondent No. 1, 2 & 3 were acquitted from the charge of Section 420/506/34 PPC under Section 249-A Cr.PC. The relevant para is that:

"Same view have reiterated that there being no probability of their conviction under section 420/506/34 PPC in my humble view as the owner of the said flat Mst. Rehana has transferred/registered the same in the name of Mst. Masooma Isphahani. And perusal of record also clearing that complainant has miserably failed to describe the specific words of threats in contents of FIR as well as in his statement under Section 161 Cr.PC before the I.O of the case. The application is therefore, allowed and thereby accused 1. Masooma Isphahani W/o. Muhammad Taqi, 2. Bisma Hakeem D/o. Hakeemuddin 3. Saira Raza W/o. Jameel Raza are acquitted under Section 249-A Cr.PC. Their bail bond stands cancelled and surety is discharged'.

Learned A.P.G supported the impugned order.

Perusal of impugned order in juxtaposition to which ground available in present appeal, suffice to say that this is not a case to interfere in the acquittal of respondent No.1, 2 & 3 by the impugned order, hence, instant Cr. Acquittal Appeal is dismissed.
