02.05.2024

Mr. Rasheed Ashraf Mughal, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Waleed Khanzada, Advocate for KW&SC.
Mr. Jawad Dero, AAG.

Question in present petition is three (03) water connections. With regard to two (02) connections, respondent KW&SC is not disputing however contends that they are defaulter and outstanding amount is due. With regard to third water connection, as per counsel for petitioners who has emphasized over page-201 which is sanction order issued by the Executive Engineer KDA Scheme No.36. Conversely, counsel for the Respondent KW&SC contends that KDA was not competent to provide that sanction order, even KDA is not party however, Respondent KW&SC is ready to provide water connection in bulk, if petitioners will apply and will complete all requisite formalities. Further, Counsel undertakes that no delay will be caused in any way and even he personally assures that there will be no colourful exercise by the official Respondents while deciding application of petitioner.

Accordingly, petitioner's counsel is satisfied, hence, petition is disposed of with direction that petitioners shall apply for third water connection and Respondent KW&SC shall examine that application and decide the same in accordance with law enabling inhabitants of that project to receive the water without any disturbance, however, respective authority would be competent to receive outstanding bills as land revenue arrears.
