I.O. filed report same is taken on record.

Petitioner No.1 Mst. Allah Wadhay present alongwith her counsel, contends that she has contracted marriage with one Sikandar [Petitioner No.2] with her own accord and denies allegations of abduction or marriage by force. Petitioner No.1 further states that her father has lodged FIR No.54/2024 against her husband [Petitioner No.2] at PS Kandhra, District Sukkur under Section 365-B PPC in order to pressurize her.

I.O recorded 161 Cr. PC statement of the Petitioner wherein she has categorically stated that she has not been kidnapped by any one and she has contracted marriage with Sikandar [Petitioner No.2] with her own accord and freewill without any coercion or force. She further stated in her statement that her father being annoyed with such marriage has lodged FIR at PS Kandhra against her husband to pressurize her.

Since Petitioner being sui juris and star witness of the case has categorically stated before the court that she has contracted marriage with her own freewill without any pressure or coercion, accordingly, instant petition is allowed and proceedings emanating from FIR No.54/2024 against her husband [Petitioner No.2] at PS Kandhra under Section 365-B PPC are hereby quashed.

The petition is disposed of in the above terms.
