Muhammad Shafi Siddiqui, J.- This Revision Application is filed in respect of an order passed in Civil Appeal No.58/2011. The applicant filed a suit for specific performance as Suit No.149/2005 which was dismissed as being not maintainable on 24.3.2008. An appeal was claimed to have been preferred on 12.5.2008. Applicant took almost 26 days to move an application for obtaining certified copy of the judgment and after obtaining certified copy the applicant preferred an appeal after almost five days and by that time the appeal was barred by time. There was no application for condonation of delay and the appeal filed by the applicant was dismissed on 18.2.2015. Learned Counsel has no answer as to why an application for condonation of delay was not filed before the trial Court. No ground is taken in this revision as well, as to why the appeal was filed belatedly.

Consequently this revision application against the concurrent findings of two Courts below is dismissed along with pending applications.
