Applicant/accused Fazal Elahi Cheema seeks post-arrest bail in Crime No.291/2024 for an offence punishable under Section 489-F PPC registered at PS Bahadurabad, Karachi. Prior to this both applicant/accused applied for the same relief before learned Additional District & Sessions Judge-I, Karachi East, but the same was dismissed vide order dated 27.11.2024. After refusal of bail applicant has approached this court for the said relief.

Learned counsel for the applicant mainly contended that there is compromise between the parties. Counsel for the complainant filed statement alongwith annexures, which is taken on record. Learned Additional P.G. Sindh submits that accused is in the judicial custody and is no more required for investigation and also recorded his no objection to the grant of bail as there is compromise between the parties.

I am inclined to grant bail to the applicant/accused for the reasons that the offence does not fall within prohibitory clause of Section 497 Cr.P.C and there is also compromise between the parties. Rightly reliance is placed upon the case of Ali Anwar Paracha V/S The State (2024 SCMR 1596) Resultantly, the bail is granted to the applicant/accused Fazal Elahi Cheema subject to his furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand Only) and P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

Criminal Bail Application stands disposed of.
