FRESH CASE.

For orders on office objection-A.
For hearing of bail application.

13.02.2018.

Mr. Syed Faiz <sup>A</sup> Muhammad Shah, Advocate for the applicant.
Mr. Khadim Hussain Koharo Addl. Proseutor General.

-----

After arguing this case at some length learned defence counsel has agreed for direction to be issued to the Anti-terrorism Court to record the evidence of material witnesses including complainant and two injured witnesses within a certain time and thereafter the appellant may move a fresh bail application. Learned Additional Prosecution General has no objection to this proposal.

Accordingly, we dismiss this bail application with direction to the learned Anti-terrorism Court to record the evidence of complainant and two injured witnesses within a period of one month and thereafter the applicant would be at liberty to move a fresh bail application before Anti-terrorism Court. It may be mentioned that if any such application is filed, it shall be decided on its own merits.

It is also made clear that in case there are some absconders in the case, their case shall be separated from those who are confined in Jail and be proceeded with in accordance with law.
