27.04.2017.

Syed Meeral Shah, D.P.G. for the State.

=

Appellant Abbas Ali was tried by learned Sessions Judge / Special Judge, Matiari in Special Case No.14/2012 for offence u/s 9(b) of C.N.S. Act, 1997. By judgment dated 17.04.2013, accused Abbas Ali was found guilty and convicted u/s 9(b) CNS Act, 1997 and sentenced to suffer RI for 02 years and to pay the fine of Rs.50,000/- In case of default in payment of fine the accused was ordered to suffer SI for six months more. The benefit of Section 382-B Cr.P.C. was extended to the accused.

Appeal was admitted for regular hearing on 24.07.2013. Jail roll was called. It is mentioned in the jail roll dated 18.12.2015 by the Superintendent Central Prison Hyderabad that the appellant / convict Abbas Ali son of Muhammad Uris Khaskheli has already been released from the prison on 07.11.2014 on completion of his term / sentence, thereafter the appellant never appeared before this court to contest the appeal.

With the assistance of learned D.P.G, we have perused the prosecution evidence brought on the record against the appellant. It appears that the trial court for the sound reasons had convicted and sentenced the appellant. Accordingly, judgment of the trial court requires no interference. Since the appellant has already been released on completion of his sentence, hence the instant appeal has become infructuous and the same is accordingly disposed of.
