The father of the petitioner served in BPS-07 in Tube-well Division, Irrigation Department, Govt. of Sindh, and retired on age of superannuation with effect from 27.05.2006. The petitioner has maintained this petition for his appointment on son quota to the post of Tube-well Operator. The respondent No.5, has filed his comments, wherein it has categorically been stated that there is no approved son quota or policy in Irrigation Department, Government of Sindh, for appointment of children of the retired Government employees, therefore, the petitioner has no legal right for his appointment in son quota.
