Mr. Safdar Ali Ghouri, advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Liaquat Ali Shar, Addl. A. G.

.....

This application has been filed for alleged contempt of order dated.25.09.2014, whereby instant petition was disposed of along with various other connected petitions with certain directions to the respondents. The said order was a consent order. Today we have confronted the learned counsel for the petitioner as to how the contempt application can be entertained which has been filed after almost four years of passing of the order, whereas, the exercise was to be completed by the respondents within 60 days. To this the learned counsel has no satisfactory explanation. Perusal of the record further reflects that various other petitioners had already filed contempt applications in respect of the above order dated.25.09.2014 and on 05.10.2017, again through a common order, the contempt applications were disposed of with certain directions. Such exercise apparently now stands completed and must not be disturbed just because the petitioner has now chosen to initiate contempt proceedings. The matter apparently stands settled, and, if any, further orders are passed, it may affect the rights of the other petitioners as well. In the circumstances, the application appears to be misconceived and is hereby dismissed.
